

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Welcome to Kee's, where every sip is a journey through history and whimsy.

Named in homage to the legendary Chye Hua Seng Wee Kee remittance house, our bar sits snugly between Clarke Quay and Boat Quay.

Once alive with peddlers hawking spices and fruits, Carpenter Street was a kaleidoscope of Singapore's past — and today, Kee's honours that legacy with cocktails infused with heritage spices and fruits, each sip a tantalising nod to yesteryear.

BOUTIQUE

WINE

Matthieu Barret

In the rugged heart of the Northern Rhône, Matthieu Barret's journey with Domaine du Coulet began in the late 1990s, but his roots run far deeper. A seventh-generation vigneron, he honed his craft in Beaune before returning to Cornas, where he transformed a small inheritance into a thriving biodynamic estate.

With vines gripping steep, sun-kissed granite terraces, his philosophy is simple—minimal intervention, pure expression. Certified organic since the early 2000s, Matthieu trusts indigenous yeasts and replaced machines with mules and manual labor to foster biodiversity.

This wine, crafted from 100% Dureza—the genetic ancestor of Syrah—embodies his relentless pursuit of terroir-driven excellence, yielding powerful, concentrated wines that honor both history and nature.
