

Welcome to Kee's, where every sip is a journey through history and whimsy.

Named in homage to the legendary Chye Hua Seng Wee Kee remittance house, our bar sits snugly between Clarke Quay and Boat Quay.

Once a vibrant hub of spice and fruit traders, Carpenter Street's legacy lives on in our cocktails — infused with heritage flavours, each sip a refined nod to Singapore's past.

KEE'S ORIGINALS

Every house needs its signatures. From beer poured cold to a Negroni built with patience and a gin shaped by botanicals, these are the expressions that belong to Kee's. Our own trade of flavour, craft and character.

KEE'S 1936 GIN ----- 22 / 188

Where the spice trade began

Long before Kee's stood here, this riverside land was shaped by Singapore's spice trade, where pepper vines once flourished. Kee's 1936 Gin takes its name from the year Chye Hua Seng Wee Kee first opened on this street, and draws from that same legacy, young ginger, sun-dried chilli and Seville orange peel, lifted by kaffir lime and green peppercorns grown in our own garden at 21 Carpenter.

Best enjoyed simple: a 50ml pour over ice, a twist of kaffir lime leaf, and a light Indian tonic to let the spice come through.

KEE'S BEER — ISLAND VIBES BLONDE ALE ----- 14

A homegrown mix of tropical flavours.

Kee's own blonde ale, brewed with calamansi, starfruit and jackfruit, tropical flavours that have always been part of this island's story. Light, fruity and easy to drink, it's a small toast to the fruits that grew here long before we did.

CHYE NEGRONI COCKTAIL ----- 20

"Chye" — drawn from this building's past.

Cinnamon, star anise, and clove-infused gin, lifted by sloe gin's gentle fruitiness.

Gin · Sweet Vermouth · Campari · Cinnamon · Star Anise · Cloves
